NEW INFO: Gold Star Families, military families, veterans and first responders are all our special guests at each performance, and as such, they do not need to pay for their tickets. However, we do still need to know if they are coming, for seating purposes. We direct them to call the theater, for Phoenix that will be Herberger Theater Center at 602-254-7399, and state that they are either military family members, a veteran or a first responder and would like their tickets set aside. The theater will have their tickets for them at will call the day of the performance. The tickets are all for general seating, but we reserve seating for our VIPs and Gold Star Families/Families of the Fallen are most definitely VIPs.

If you are in the Phoenix area this is a must see. We are helping promote this for Gary Sinise and Scott Mann.

What: "Last Out - Elegy of a Green Beret," sponsored by the Gary Sinise Foundation, is coming to Phoenix.

Where: Herberger Theater (222 E Monroe Street, Phoenix, AZ)

When:

- Friday, June 9 at 7:00 PM
- Saturday, June 10 at 1:00 PM
- Saturday, June 10 at 7:00 PM
- A talkback with the audience will follow each show.

Who: This play is an opportunity for civilians and veterans to sit together, at a community level, to build a shared perspective on what it means to serve in war. "Last Out" was written by Green Beret Scott Mann and performed by a cast of veterans and military family members.

Why: "Last Out" is a story about modern war. This powerful play informs civilians on the cost of war, while also validating the service and sacrifice of the military community who lived it.

This is an official email communication from the USSVI Perch Base and does not require a response.
